

Women's History Month

Take the time this month to celebrate women and their contributions to the world. Attend the art exhibitions featured at the CalPoly Pomona Downtown Center and at the NoHo Gallery. Make sure to mark your calendars for the different events in the "Feminine Mix" theme. Also, see Hope Runs Eternal and enter into our ticket giveaway for some St. Patrick's Day fun.

Woman

NoHo Gallery LA celebrates Women's History Month by showcasing women artist and woman-inspired art March 2nd to April 1st. The featured artist in this exhibition is Alisa Gabrielle, a painter, sculptor and legally blind.

See the work of this artist whose disability likely moved her to go beyond the known to create a style of beauty that reflects women as they really are, and not how our culture wants them to be.

Feminine Wisdom

This Cal Poly Pomona Downtown Center exhibit runs from March 11th to April 22nd. It features seasoned female artists, who gather in this exhibit to explore and celebrate women's wisdom and the passing of that wisdom from woman to woman, generation to generation. There will be an artists panel in conjunction with the event, and live jazz music at the
